

CALL FOR CONFERENCE IN HUNGARY

Quo Vadis, Iuvenis?

„Where are you going, youth?”

International Youth Conference

22th of November 2019

Quo Vadis, Iuvenis? is an international conference about recent issues concerning young people. Our main objective is not to ask the politicians, not even the experts, but the real target group, the youngsters! In order to get to know what they think about the following topics:

- Education in the 21st century.
- Social media and society.
- The role and assessment of family in modern societies.
- European Union and national identity.
- Environment and responsibilities.

Details for presenters:

We would like to invite young presenters in the age between 18-25. We expect fresh, provocative, yet scholar like ideas about one of the above mentioned topics. According to the 5 topics the conference will consist of 5 sections. Your presentation should take no more than 10 minutes. The working language is English.

What we offer:

- We refund your travel cost up to 200€
- We pay your food and accommodation.
- We publish your presentation
- We provide media presence
- You can add an attractive point to your CV
- A great experience in Hungary

What we ask for the application:

- A CV with picture (good quality photo for our website and for the publication)
- A 2 pages long (about 7000 characters) extract of your presentation.
- Application deadline: 20th of September 2019.

Place of the conference:

A Vértés Agorája
Tatabánya
Hungary
For Google Maps, click here

Date of the conference:

22nd of November 2019

For application and further information please contact us:

Pal Matyas Szenasi

E-mail:

quovadisiuvenis@gmail.com
szenasi.pal@avertesagoraja.hu

Website:

www.avertesagoraja.hu